Introduction:

COUN 5 is an introduction to De Anza College that includes information about programs, services, policies, degrees, certificates, transfer requirements and college culture. The focus is on strategies needed for academic success and the development of a preliminary comprehensive education plan.

Course Objectives:

Become familiar with De Anza College

Learn about De Anza's policies and procedures such as how to add/drop courses and information on the academic calendar, probation, time management, GPA calculation and more.

Review Placement Tests information for English, ESL, Math and some science courses.

Learn about degrees offered at De Anza and at four-year colleges.

Learn about major selection and how to find your major requirements.

Be introduced to different General Education (GE) options.

Learn transfer information and processes.

Learn how to use Degree Works to complete audits and a comprehensive educational plan.

Student requirements:

There are two components in the course: lectures led by the instructor of record (me), and various assignments. Lectures will include presentation of the material with PowerPoint slides and video clips There will be several opportunities for engagement during lectures via discussion. Although this is a class of only 2 weeks, your participation is extremely valuable. Multiple insights, experiences, and opinions will enrich our learning experience.

Assignments and grading:

I require 2 assignments, prepare one comprehensive education plan, and (1) final project which may be in the form of a video/photo/or written project. These requirements will allow you to improve skills such as researching, interpreting, summarizing, writing, and critically observing. The assignments are highly connected to class material and constitute the basis for your grade.

Lectures:

PowerPoint materials and educational links used in class will be made available on the course homepage at the end of each week.

Course Policies: DROPS/ADDS:

Please review campus website for specific information.

Students with Disabilities:

If you require any type of an academic accommodation in this course or have questions about physical access, please discuss this with me during the first week of class. You can also contact the Disability Services Center www.deanza.edu/dsps/
