Welcome!!

Greetings From Your Instructor

Hi, I'm Amy Leonard. Please feel free to call me Amy in class, but if that is not comfortable for you, you can call me Ms. L or Prof. L. I have been teaching English at De Anza since 2006.

When I am not at De Anza, you can usually find me hiking a local trail, taking pics, doing yoga, running a half-marathon or marathons, listening to an interesting new band, catching up on my Netflix, or writing poetry.

I'm married to the awesome De Anza College English Instructor, Sarah Lisha, and we have 9 awesome nieces and nephews and 3 cute and rebellious cats.

I really am looking forward to working with you and learning from you all quarter!

How This Class Works

This is a 12-week hybrid class with in-person and online elements that begins Monday, Jan. 6th

You will learn in a community with your peers. 🙌 This is not a self-paced course.

 This class does meet regularly on-campus on Wednesdays 12:30-2:20 and the rest of your learning is asynchronously (which means "not live") in Canvas.

 By Sunday of Week 1, you will be expected to attend the in-person part of the class and log-in to our course in Canvas and complete the Orientation Module.

 On morning Monday of each week, you will receive a weekly announcement with updates, so please check your email or click "Announcements" in Canvas.

New modules are also available on Monday mornings.

Due dates are always on Wednesdays and Sundays at 11:59pm.

 Each module contains readings and videos, collaborative activities including discussions, and writing prompts.
